Numb. 1461

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday November 17. to Thursday November 20. 1679.

Prague, Nov. 6.

MOnſieur Colbert, the French Ambaſſador is arrived at Municke, the Elector of Bavaria's Court, where his main buſineſs is to conclude a Marriage between the Elector and Madamoiſelle de Valois, the Duke of Orleans's ſecond Daughter; and if that be effected, the other between the Dauphin and the Princeſs of Bavaria will have no great Difficulty in it. Count Lobcowits, who is at that Court on the part of the Emperor, will on the other ſide labour to hinder that Electors joyning in this double Alliance with France, and what the event will be, time muſt ſhew.

Prague, Nov. 8. We have not yet had any account from Munick, how matters are like to go there, but in the mean time it ſeems to be the general belief that the French Intereſt will prevail, and that a double Marriage will be concluded, between the Dauphin and the Princeſs of Bavaria, and the Elector and Madamoiſelle de Valois. Several Regiments have been reformed, but the Soldiers are put into others that are to remain on Foot, and to the Officers the Emperor gives Pentions till he can otherwiſe provide for them.

Prague, Nov. 11. Yeſterday arrived here the Marquis de Vitry in quality of Envoy Extraordinary from the Moſt Chriſtian King. We are expecting (not without ſome impatience) to hear what ſucceſs the Negotiations, now in hand at the Court of Bavaria, have.

Cologne, Nov. 14. The thoughts of having the French Winter in theſe parts does extreamly perplex the poor Inhabitants, who now begin to deſpair of ever enjoying the effects of the Peace. But theſe Calamities are nor their Portion only, for our Letters from above give us an account that the French have demanded a vaſt Sum of money of Briſgow, which it is impoſſible for that Countrey to raiſe.

Bruſſels, Nov. 21. The States of this Province have not yet agreed to the Subſidies demanded by his Excellency, who is much diſpleaſed with them on that account. The Spaniſh Letters, arrived two days ſince, ſay that the King was gone from Madrid to meet his Queen; That there had been a great diſpute between the Marquis d' Aſtorgas and the Duke d' Oſſuna (the two principal Officers of the Queens Houſhold) concerning Precedency, which the King had determined in favour of the former. The Letters from Liege of the 18th ſay, That the French Troops would certainly Winter in thoſe parts, and that Monſieur Calvo's Baggage, which was on its way for France, was ordered to return to Aix la Chapelle. The Letters add, That the Dutch Troops continue poſſeſt of Haſſel and Muſeick, and that they have laid up great Magazines there.

Bruſſels, Nov. 24. At length the States of Brabant are come to a reſolution in the matter of the Subſidies demanded by his Excellency, and have granted for one year ten in the hundred of the Land-Rents, and five of the Houſes in the Cities and Towns, which it's computed will amount to 800 thouland Florins. The Marquis de Risberg is come hither to inform his Excellency of the ill condition which the Troops under his command in Guelderland are in, they having received no pay for ſeveral Months paſt. From Cologne, by Letters of the 21 inſtant, we are told, That the French are like to continue in thoſe parts, and that ſeven Companies have already taken their winter quarters in the ſmall Town of Linnich, though at the ſame time the Letters from Holland ſay, that the French are going to quit Weſel. The Commiſſioners appointed to Treat with thoſe of France, for the adjuſting the Limits, are ſtill here. Our Letters from France inform us of the diſgrace of Monſieur de Pompone, and that the King had commanded him to go and live upon his Eſtate in the Country; but had given him a yearly Pention, and leave to receive 700000 Livres of his ſucceſſor for his place. The Term, in which Spain is to yield Charlemont to France, or elſe obtain from the Emperor and Empire the Ceſſion of Dinant to that Crown, is going to expire, which is a matter that may occaſion new difficulties.

Amſterdam, Nov. 21. Our Deputies are gone this day for the Hague, where the States of Holland meet to morrow; but all this week they will do nothing beſides the diſpoſing of ſeveral Offices and Employments that are vacant. From Bavaria they write, That that Elector ſeemed reſolved not to marry till he be out of his Minority Hague, Nov. 21. Monſieur Cramprick, the Emperors Reſident, has, within theſe few days preſented a Memorial to the States, to put them in mind of the Arrears of Subſidies due to his Maſter; in which the States have not yet taken any reſolution, but we are told that they are reſolved to make a farther Reform of ſeveral Troops of Horſe and Companies of Foot, and beſides of 4 men in each Company that is left ſtanding. The Actions of the Eaſt-India Company are now got up to their former value, viz. 450, the report that occaſioned their fall ſufficiently appearing to have been without ground. To morrow the States of Hollond meet, but there will be nothing of conſequence moved till the beginning of the next week againſt which time the Prince and Princeſs of Orange are expected here.

Paris, Nov. 25. The loſs of the two Men of War (which we have already given you an account of) commanded by Monſieur de Tourville and Monſieur de Chabert, has cauſed much ſadneſs at Court, for the great number of Gentlemen of Quality that periſhed with them; among others were the Count de Clermont, the Count d' Autreguei,